By Luke Kagiri

As pupils, parents and teachers celebrated the excellent Primary Leaving Examinations results of Eseza Nakintu, a former pupil of Royal Kiwawu Primary School in Malangala sub-county, Mityana, could not hide her disappointment after scoring aggregate five.

"It's not what I wanted. All the time I struggled to get a four," Nakintu told New Vision. *

Nakintu spent much of her time with her mother, Slyvia Nangozi. Nangozi, who runs a shop in Mityana Central Market, tried to console her.

Jalia Kayondo, the school director, said achieving aggregate five was commendable given the nationwide performance.
