

Certified. The best boys and girls with certificates of recognition for their outstanding performance in the Entebbe Juniors Golf Open at Entebbe Club. PHOTOS/EDDIE CHICCO

Tomorrow's stars. The top boys and girls pose with their trophies to cap a glorious, memorable day.

Entebbe holds glorious juniors championship

Big shoulders. Victor Kalenzi showed brilliant calmness and nerves of steel to prevail in the gross category at the annual Entebbe Juniors Golf tournament at the par-71 Course recently. Kalenzi returned 86 to beat Daniel Oburu into second place by six strokes. The tournament, which attracted hundreds of youngsters, has over the years grown into a conveyor belt for national team golfers and profession-

Bump and Roll. Liam Mubiru put on a short game masterclass

Terrific talent. Cosmas Ociti is rated among the country's best young golfers

Daddy tips. Andrew Baguma (right) engaging his sons Jethro Murungi and Jeremiah Baguma during the tournament.

Great wedge game. Camilla Murungi controlled her wedges well.

Ball Apex. Daniel Oburu (right) and Nathan Lawoko watching the flight of a colleague's golf shot.

Scrambling. Christian Edema missed the green but salvaged a score.

LPGA style. Kyrah Martinah Ikbisumba dressed well and swung like a pro.

Boy wonder. Ethan Mugambagye's confidence has short through the roof in recent times.