

80s club. Dan Kireju, Dr Sam Zaramba, Kaka Matama and Prof. Herbert Nsanze, all octogenarians, at Kitante Golf Course. PHOTOS/ EDDIE CHICCO

Blood line. Lotta Zaramba showed that she is on her way to walking in grandpa's footsteps.

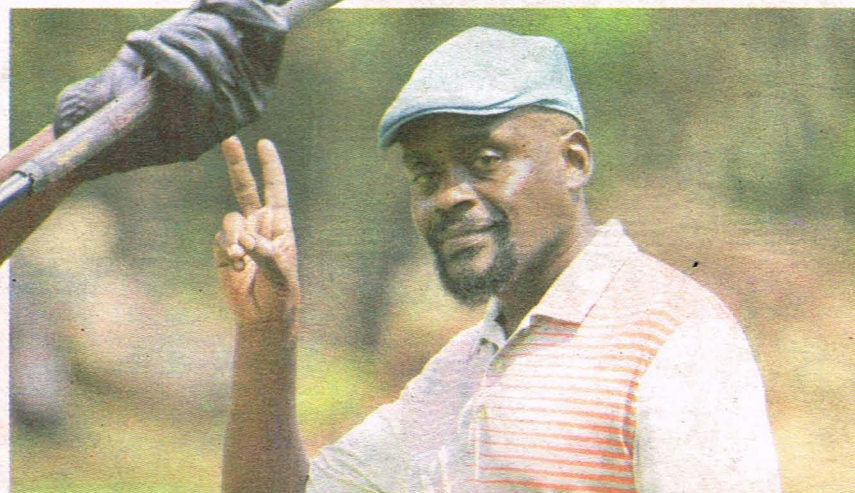

The Zarambas' Day. Maria, Dr Zaramba's wife, showcased her passion and competitive fight at the par-72.

Prodigious talent. Teenager Maria Sekadde, a granddaughter of Dr Zaramba, is destined for big things in the game.

UGC celebrates Dr Zaramba

There are men who have been part and parcel of everything that Uganda Golf Club stands for. And one of those is Dr Sam Zaramba. Last weekend, a tournament was held in his honour to celebrate his 80th birthday. He has served the club in many capacities, including being captain and board chairperson.

Ciao hombre. Daniel Kalungi was among the hundreds who honoured the tribute.

Old brooms sweep clean. Soft-spoken Dr Henry Ssali is playing better with age, like fine wine.

Unsure. Andrew Baguma (right) watches his shot with keenness on the tricky par-3 eleventh.

Moment to ponder. Bernard Katehangwa and Tony Gadokhe comparing notes on the course.

Pretty shot. Berna Musanabera and Major William Omaria pose for the camera during their round.

Still going strong. Veteran golfer Elly Tumwine has not lost his passion for the game.